

In Spanish there are two ways to ask someone 'What is your name?':

1 ¿Cómo te llamas?

To answer this question you say Me llamo...

2 ¿Cuál es tu nombre?

To answer this question you say Mi nombre es...

If you want to tell someone your name you can also use the two answers above, Me llamo, Mi nombre es.

Did you notice that Miguel said encantado, and Ana encantada? This is because, in general, words that end with 'o' are masculine, and words that end with 'a' are feminine. The word used will match the gender of the person
